Note: This membership policy is subject to change at the discretion of NAPA. Any updates or modifications to the policy will be communicated to members in a timely manner.

Please note: At NAPA, we value the trust and integrity of our membership community. Sharing resources with non-member settings is considered a breach of NAPA membership terms and conditions. We take digital protection guidelines seriously and will terminate membership if we suspect any breach. As a charity, our primary focus is the wellbeing of individuals who use care and support services, which is why we strive to provide everything we do at a low or no cost. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
